

Service-Learning in Oaxaca, Mexico

Summer: Culture and Community Health Director: Dr. Peter Guarnaccia

Summer 2015 Application Deadline: March 1st

Scholarships Available!

Are you interested in a career in health, health care, public health, or medical anthropology? Then this course is for you! Come spend 4.5 weeks in the beautiful city of Oaxaca learning about medical anthropology, providing service in community health settings, and learning medical Spanish. Live with a Oaxacan host family and experience the colonial city of Oaxaca with its delicious restaurants and great markets. Visit the archaeological site of Monte Alban, the craft village of Teotitlan del Valle, and the ecotourism community of Capulalpam. This course connects students to the health concerns of the large Oaxacan community living in New Brunswick.

Dates: June 2—July 5
Credits: 6
Housing: Homestays

Contact Info:

Gregory Spear
Service-Learning Coordinator
Center for Global Education
P. (848)-932-7787 E. gspear@gaiacenters.rutgers.edu

Rutgers Service-Learning Abroad
{ Engage Your World }

globaleducation.rutgers.edu